Starke, Fla., Oct. 18, 1895.

By the way, did Little Tiger Tail ever reach Tallahassee and interview the governor?

Mr. Call declares that he will contest every inch of ground in Florida when the time comes for the home run in the senatorial race.

EDITOR J. M. CALDWELL, of the Jasper News, has been appointed clerk of the circuit court for Hamilton county. Governor Mitchell could not have made a happier selection. The TELEGRAPH congratulates the governor on his good taste and Brother Caldwell on his good fortune.

MOUTH-BREATHING during sleep is a most pernicious habit, due as much to carelessness as to anything else. It is impossible to snore with the mouth closed.—Florida Health Notes.] Certainly mouth-breathing and snoring are pernicious habits, but will the editor of Health Notes explain how the fellow who carelessly leaves his mouth open at the time of retiring is to get up and close it without abridging his nap.

A CHARGE OF PERFDY.

Some of the newspapers are making nominations for the offices that are to be filled at the next election. This apparently useless occupation is not in all cases without results. For instance, an editor who favors some man not yet mentioned as a candidate tries to kill off a possible rival candidate by starting a premature "boom" for him. If his assumed championship is well received, and is seconded by other editors, he congratulates himself, because he believes that the "boom" will have ample time to exhaust itself before the opening of the campaign. If his suggestion of a candidate falls flat, he is equally well pleased, because he then feels that the candidate has failed to show any strength and cannot stand in the way of his favorite.—Jacksonville Citizen.

This sweeping charge of perfidy, coming, as it does, from a paper that aspires to the leading place in Florida journalism, appears to us to be in "bad form," and will not likely jingle as merrily as the proverbial wedding bell in the ears of the editors in this state who have spoken in complimentary terms of the men whom they deem fitted to occupy the offices in our state government that will be made vacant in 1897 by the expiration of the terms of the present incumbents. The men against whom this ungrounded charge is made by the Citizen—or a large majority of them at least—have been engaged in Florida journalism for a long period of years. They have by untiring effort, contributed much to the upbuilding of the state and the development of her resources. They have been prominently before the people of their respective communities during all these years, and this from the Citizen is the first intimation that we have had that they are cunning, perfidious fellows and not high-toned, honorable gentlemen.

Among those who come under the ban of the Citizen's accusation are: McCreary, of the Gainesville Sun; Harris, of the Ocala Banner; Pratt, of the Leesburg Commercial; Johnston, of the Dade City Democrat; Stovall, of the Tampa Tribune; Randall, of the Green Cove Springs; Harrison, of the Ocala News; Caldwell, of the Jasper News; Collins, of the Tallahasseean; Farmer, of the Bronson Times-Democrat; Robertson, of the Brooksville News-Register; Murray, of the Daytona Gazette-News; Codrington, of the Deland News; Prevatt, of the Volusia County Record; Manney, of the Fernandina News; Oliver, of the Lake City Tobacco Plant; Dodd, of the Lake City Reporter; Whitfield, of the Live Oak Banner; Kendall, of the New Smyrna Breeze; Hudson, of the Orlando Reporter; Bartz, of the Palatka Times Herald; Olin, of Florida Facts; Graham, of the Sumterville Times; St. Clair Abrams, of the Taylors Herald; Choate, of the Pensacola News; Appleyard, of the Sanford Chronicle; Carter, of the Metropolis; Scott, of the Quincy Democrat and Johnson, of the Apalachicola Times.

These are among the editors who have at one time or another expressed a preference for one or more men among the many available candidates for the various state offices. And these are the men who are playing in the role of the hypocrite; who are pretending loyalty and friendship only to the more effectually stab their victims in the back; who have, for years, masqueraded before the Florida public as loyal friends or honorable foes only to have the cloak of deceit torn from them by a discerning "tender-foot." If Florida's press had really descended to such depths of trickery as the Citizen alleges, it would indeed be a sad commentary upon a profession that occupies a most exalted place in the minds of our countrymen. But, for our part, we are not prepared to accept the allegation without the affidavits to support it.

HON. B. S. LIDDON.

Hon. Benjamin S. Liddon has been suggested by the Starke TELEGRAPH as being sound Senatorial timber. In this we heartily concur. There can be none more pure and free from all the isms and faults usually found in chronic office-seekers. Then, there can be no one found more capable. No slur can be cast upon his record, and should he be willing to serve, the people of Florida can rest assured they will be ably and faithfully represented.—Marianna Courier.

The TELEGRAPH's suggestion of Mr. Liddon's name in connection with the senatorial succession was prompted by a feeling of confidence in his ability and general fitness for the position and by the belief that in no other way can the dissension in the Florida democracy be more effectually dissipated than by placing the bone of contention in the hands of one who has not been prominently, if in the least, identified with the little unpleasantness.

To be sure such a course might entail the compromise of favorites on either side, but it would be infinitely better for us to sacrifice our personal feelings and preferences than continue an unseemly controversy over the highest position within our gift.

There was no contention in the convention that nominated Mr. Liddon for the sacred trust that he now holds. There need be none in the legislature that tenders him the honor that his ability and parity merit.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

Discussing the mode of holding primary elections the Citrus County Chronicle of recent date says:

"When the County democratic Executive Committee shall meet again, one of the questions to be discussed and decided will be whether, at primary elections, a majority of all of the votes cast or only a plurality should constitute a nomination. It seems to us that a plurality of the votes should decide, and that the person receiving the largest number of votes for any one office should be declared the nominee, and not be forced to make the race a second time because he did not receive a majority. Nine times out of ten the person who receives a plurality when three or more candidates are running will get a majority when the race shall be reduced to two candidates.

In 1894 the primary election method of nominating candidates for county offices was tried for the first time in Bradford county. Our executive committee did not impose any restrictions on the point raised by the Chronicle, but by common consent the nominations were accorded to the candidates receiving pluralities. The plan worked admirably. The candidates thus nominated were accepted as the candidates of the democracy, and, as such, received the votes of all good democrats.

If we try the primary plan next year it is probable that the plurality rule will again be applied.

Children, especially infants, are soon run down with Cholera Infantum or "summer complaint." Don't wait to determine, but give it DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure promptly, you can rely on it. Use no other.—Starke Drug Co.

WITH FLORIDA EDITORS.

Belongs of Senatorial Candidates.

Call is on the stump in Florida. Dougherty is eating yellow-legged chickens in North Georgia. Chipley is in charge of a Florida exhibit at the Atlanta Exposition. Hammond is attending to his ministerial business. Taliaferro keeps his eye on three of the above, while about a dozen more candidates for the United States Senate, to succeed the Senior Senator, are sawing wood.

The Right Man Will Be Struck.

The nomination of the Hon. J. P. Taliaferro for governor by the Pasco County Democrat has evidently produced a terrible commotion in the office of our valued contemporary, the Pensacola Times, which in a recent issue devotes a long and able editorial to an elaborate analysis of that gentleman's political performances. Let the thunder roll. When the lightning flashes, somebody who deserves it will be hit.

A Question of Legality.

Under the ruling of Comptroller Bloxham very few of the delinquent tax lists in Florida will have legal publication. He advised collectors where papers were published on Thursday to let first insertion appear Oct. 10. This gives only 26 days notice to first Monday in November, and every lawyer knows that this will not be a legal month. A few collectors, among whom were those in Alachua, Bradford, Lafayette and Levy counties, ignored the instructions of the comptroller and inserted the list the first week in October. A sale made under a notice of 26 days will not be legal, and has so been decided by the supreme court. Our collector prefers to be on the safe side.

More Rendle' an' Writin'.

The Public school Exponent makes its first appearance from Jacksonville this week. Among the good things it contains is this: "We need less military training, less Latin, etc., and more 'readin', 'rithmetic'—more good solid body and less trimmings. The plain fact might as well be admitted. The average graduate of the average school these days knows a little of a great many things, but not much of anything." This sentiment will meet the approbation of all practical, progressive people. But it is in direct conflict with Superintendent Sheats' question sheets for the recent teachers' examinations. And no matter what excuses he may give the superintendent is personally responsible for the nonsensical character of those questions.

He Will Get Used To It.

State superintendent Sheats is much wrought up in feeling about the recent criticisms of the State press on his examination questions and he indulges in some very hard sayings about the quill-driving fraternity.

The news has not made a single criticism of Mr. Sheats, nor the recent examination papers, beyond mere allusions in a facetious way. We do not feel, however, that we would not be perfectly justifiable in sharply criticizing some language used by Mr. Sheats a few days ago about the State press, but we forbear for the present in consideration of Mr. Sheats' inexperience. He has not yet held office long enough to learn that to be "cussed" is one of the perquisites of official life. The public official who pleases everybody is always retired at the expiration of his first term. If Mr. Sheats will but think a moment he can easily call to mind a very prominent Florida official who was actually "cussed" into the office he to-day occupies. Bro. Sheats is entirely too sensitive. The criticisms of which he complains are fine advertisements for which he should be truly thankful, and if he continues to hold office he will get used to little things like that after awhile.

What is the difference between a shallow skin, dull eyes and faded cheeks, and a ruddy complexion, bright eyes and rosy cheeks?

There are 2 answers:—

1st ANSWER: All the difference in the world. One is ugliness; the other is beauty.

2nd ANSWER: 25 cents difference. For 25 cents will secure a three weeks' treatment (two different medicines) which will correct your disordered liver, banish all poisonous bile, purify your blood, stimulate appetite, tone up the nerves, and make a new creature of you.

This is a famous remedy, and while perfectly harmless, it never fails. It is made of the purest preparations.

Call in West Florida.

From the St. Andrews Bury.]

It is as near possible for a man convicted of felony to convince people by his own words that he is innocent as it is for Mr. Call to create the impression upon the voters of West Florida that it is to their interest to again return him to the senate.

There is one medicine which every family should be provided with. We refer to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When it is kept at hand the severe pain of a burn or scald may be promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate attention, before the parts become swollen, and when Chamberlain's Pain Balm is applied it will heal them without matter being formed, and without leaving a scar. A sore throat may be cured in one night. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment and bound over the seat of pain, will cure lame back or pain in the side or chest in twenty-four hours. It is the most valuable, however, for rheumatism. Persons afflicted with this disease will be delighted with the prompt relief from pain which it affords, and it can be depended upon to effect a complete cure. For sale by Starke Drug Co.

For la grippe use Dr. Powell's Fever Cure. It "never fails" to cure it.

Mrs. J. F. Bell, Ossawatimie, Kan., wife of the editor of The Graphic, the leading local paper of Miami county, writes "I was troubled with heart disease for six years, severe palpitations, shortness of breath, together with such extreme nervousness, that, at times I would walk the floor nearly all night. We consulted the best medical talent. They said there was no help for me, that I had organic disease of the heart for which there was no remedy. I had read your advertisement in The Graphic and, as a last resort, tried one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart, which convinced me that there was true merit in it. I took three bottles each of the Heart Cure and Restorative Nerve and it completely cured me. I sleep well at night, my heart beats regularly and I have no more smothering spells. I wish to say to all who are suffering as I did: there's relief untold for them if they will only give your remedies just one trial." Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. All druggists sell it at $1.60 bottles for $5, or it will be sent, prepaid, on receipt of price by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
